

Helen Bailey

Senior Design Consultant

Creating practical, engaging learning that people can apply confidently in the workplace

About

Helen is an award-winning learning designer who creates practical, engaging training with clear real-world impact.

Known for her positive and flexible approach, she builds strong relationships with clients and stakeholders and develops inclusive learning aligned with their needs.

Away from work, Helen enjoys musicals, supporting Man Utd and Lewis Hamilton, and visiting National Trust sites, with Chatsworth House a firm favourite.

Approach

Creates practical training with clear takeaways that learners can apply immediately.

Designs interactive experiences that engage learners in the subject.

Uses discussion to build on learners' knowledge and workplace experience.

Fully documents programmes so clients can deliver them in-house.

Experience

Created an award-winning management development programme for Compton Care.

Won Best People Management Programme in the Public Sector category.

Designs practical soft-skills training for a variety of clients.

Works closely with clients and senior stakeholders to tailor learning to their needs.

Qualifications and credentials

MiRO Practitioner

ILM Level 3 Coaching for Performance

OCR Level 3 Assessing Vocational Achievement

“ Nothing is a problem to Helen. Conducting discovery meetings and meeting senior stakeholders is all done with ease and positivity. We have been extremely grateful for the flexible nature in which Helen works ”