

Mark Clough

Senior Consultant

Helping leaders turn ambition into clear actions that improve people and business performance

About

Mark is an executive coach and facilitator with over 30 years' experience in leadership, management, sales and organisational development.

Having held senior roles across the UK and Middle East, he brings practical commercial insight to his work, helping leaders and teams create clarity, strengthen performance and manage change.

Away from work, Mark enjoys a challenge. In 2024, he completed a solo cycle ride from Manchester to Paris to raise funds for the children's ward at the Christie Hospital.

Approach

Creates collaborative, engaging environments where people can explore challenges openly and identify practical solutions

Connects strategic goals with clear, measurable actions that improve individual, team and business performance

Uses Insights Discovery and the GC Index to build self-awareness, encourage behavioural change and strengthen team effectiveness

Combines empathy and encouragement with appropriate challenge, maintaining a clear focus on results

Experience

Designed and delivered leadership, management, sales and business development programmes

Coached senior leaders and teams through growth, change and performance challenges

Held senior leadership roles across recruitment, media and broadcast engineering.

Worked with organisations across the UK and Middle East, combining commercial experience with practical people development

Qualifications and credentials

Insights Discovery Client Practitioner

HND Business Studies

Accredited GC Index Practitioner

Driving positive mindsets in the workplace. Everything is possible